Financial Policy:

- Patient is responsible for all charges on account including charges not covered by their dental benefit plan.
- Payment is due at the time of service unless otherwise arranged.
- Outstanding balance on accounts must be paid in timely manner, via check, cash or credit card.

Insurance:

We are contracted with most major PPO dental insurance plans. As courtesy we will make every effort to verify eligibility and gather plan information before appointment.

- If insurance coverage cannot be confirmed at the time of service then patient will be responsible for the payment in full.
- Depending on your dental plan some services may not be covered or have reduced reimbursement by my insurance that will be patient responsibility.
- We will provide estimate of treatment cost according to information received by your plan, once processed by your insurance there may be credit or balance depending on your specific insurance plan.

Scheduled Appointment:

We understand that plans change and that you may need to alter your scheduled appointment. Please give us the courtesy of at least 2 business day notice to reschedule or cancel appointment. This courtesy will allow us to offer the appointment time to another patient in need.

- In case of cancelation less than 1 business day or missed appointment a minimum charge of $50 will be applied at our discretion.
